

LGBTQ+ Terms Matching Activity

On this page are seven terms and definitions about sex assigned at birth and gender. Match the terms on this page to their corresponding definitions on this page.

Sex Assigned at Birth

1. One's internal sense of being male, female, neither of these, both, or other gender(s).

Intersex

2. How one presents their gender including clothing, hairstyle, voice, and more.

Gender Identity

3. The assignment and classification of people as male, female, or intersex. It is often based on physical anatomy at birth and/or chromosomes.

Transgender

4. This term refers to someone who does not identify or express their gender within the gender binary (man or woman). They may instead identify both as man and woman, as neither man nor woman, or as falling in between or outside these categories. They may also simply feel restricted by gender labels.

Cisgender

5. An umbrella term for people whose gender identity differs from the sex they were assigned at birth.

Gender Expression

6. People whose gender identity is the same as the sex they were assigned at birth.

Non-binary

7. Describing a person with a less common combination of hormones, chromosomes, and anatomy that are used to assign sex at birth.

On this page there are seven terms and definitions about sexual orientation. Match the terms on this page to their corresponding definitions on this page.

Lesbian

8. This term refers to someone who experiences no sexual attraction to others.

Attractionality

9. This term refers to someone who is attracted to more than one gender.

Straight or Heterosexual

10. This term refers to someone who is attracted to members of the same gender and often refers to a man who is attracted to other men.

Gay

11. This term refers to a woman who is attracted to other women.

Asexual

12. This term is used by some people who identify as belonging to the LGBTQ+ community. This word is still sometimes used as a hateful slur, so although it has been reclaimed by many, be careful with its use.

Bisexual

13. This term refers to the many ways a person can be attracted to someone, including emotional, physical, social, intellectual, and spiritual attraction.

Queer

14. This term refers to someone who is primarily attracted to people who are not their same gender.